

DUALSHOWER, a waterfall and rainfall of wellness by Ramon Soler®

The new Dualshower by Ramon Soler® has a modern look and creates a harmonious ambience, concerting the daily shower in the best moment of the day. Dualshower is a wallshower which is wall anchored and is built in stainless steel with a chrome finish. This new shower by Ramon Soler® offers its users wellness by having two types of water exits; waterfall and rain. The rain effect is very realxing and the waterfall has an abundant flow which tones the body and one starts the day with vigorous vitality.

Its clean lines permits this shower to be able to be placed in any type of bathroom, and this is the order of the day in modern bathroom designs.

The set measures 55cm x 23 cm. The rain quadrant has a system in which micro filters with anti-limescale occupy an area of 22 x 18 cm. Dualshower also offers a refreshing 15cm wide waterfall. The flow rate in each option is 14 l/min due to filters and flow limitors which contibute to watersaving.
